*The District has a duty under Federal law to serve students who are limited English proficient and need special instructional services in order to be successful. Given that duty, the District has the right to ask for the information it needs to identify these students. As part of their responsibility to locate and identify students with limited English proficiency who are entitled to special instructional services, Districts may conduct screenings or ask for related information about students who are enrolled in the district. Districts are permitted to engage in these activities, despite the fact that it sometimes means that private information must be shared with the District.
